Tig Tags™ were designed and created by a primary school teacher and mother of two when she noticed babies and children rubbing and mouthing the satin edges of blankets and clothing labels and tags.

She has created a variety of designs for various ages.

(Please note that the pictures show samples only and are not representative of all designs, colours and styles available)

0-6 months

Babies can see from birth but their vision isn't fully developed. Until the baby is approx 6 months of age, they respond best to bold contrasting colours and graphics. That is why we have chosen to make designs that feature the visual extremes of black, white and red for the 0-6 month old. These high contrast colours will captivate and hold baby's attention.

6-12 months

As baby grows, bold, block colours are the next visual stimuli and at this stage they will begin to touch and feel everything around them with their hands and mouth. Toys with tags in a variety of textures and colours as well as pull cords will help baby fully explore this sense. The baby will also learn to grasp the various coloured tags and pull the coloured cords, shake the toy and hear the bell jiggle inside.

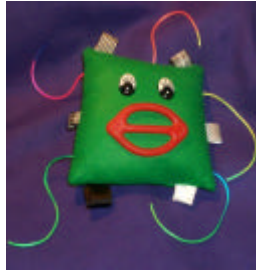

For this age we have also incorporated teething rings into some of the toys. This allows the baby to soothe their gums whilst cuddling the soft Tig Tags™ Toy.

12 months (toddlers) and up

The Tig Tags™ for Toddlers have been designed to incorporate a character with personality and as such some of the toys have eyes attached firmly to the shape and we have combined more complex designs, patterns and shapes that are sure to attract.

For an extra cost you can purchase some of the toys filled with aromatherapy oils that will either stimulate or calm the child depending on the oil you choose.

Pricing:

RRP range from $15 for the small Tig Tags™, $25 for the large cot sized pillows and up to $45 for a cot sized blanket Tig Tags™

A complete (large) Tig Tags™ set comprising of a pillow, cot sized blanket, teething tig tag and Toddler Tig Tag would cost $85.

Please ask for wholesale pricing if interested in becoming a dealer for Tig Tags™ Toys.
